

Colorado Kids: WordBank

November 8, 2005

“Rosa Parks laid to rest” discrimination – unfair treatment of one person or group segregate – to separate black and white people civil rights movement – the effort to end unfair laws and unfair treatment of all people

Secretary of State – the person who represents America while trying to keep friendly relationships with other countries

U.S. Supreme Court – the highest court in America that makes the final decisions seamstress – a person who sews clothes for others

NAACP – The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People – this group helps black people to have equal rights with others “International Space Station celebrates 5th birthday”

International Space Station – (ISS) also called the space station – the huge station orbiting 250 miles above the Earth created and used by many countries for experiments in zero-gravity zero gravity – also called microgravity, a state of weightlessness “Rocket-powered bike blasts off” nitrous oxide – a type of gas often used in medicine “Basketball pumped for new season”

NBA – National Basketball Association – the main basketball players’ organization rebound – to get a ball that has bounced off the backboard or rim brawl – a loud fight

suspended – stop something for a period of time

“Americans are more cluttered than ever” clutter – extra stuff we keep that we don’t always use documents – important papers anonymous – someone not named “People grab fistfuls of flying money” armored truck – a tank-like truck that carries money original – amount at the beginning next lesson ▼

Colorado Kids: Mix and Match

November 8, 2005

discrimination	unfair treatment of one person or group
armored truck	to get a ball that has bounced off the backboard or rim civil rights movement	the huge station orbiting 250 miles above the Earth and used by many countries U.S. Supreme Court	to separate black and white people seamstress	the effort to end unfair laws and unfair treatment of all people anonymous	the person who represents America International Space Station	the highest court in America that makes the final decisions
Secretary of State	clutter clutter	a person who sews clothes for others zero gravity	group helps black people to have equal rights with others NBA	state of weightlessness rebound	a type of gas often used in medicine brawl	main basketball players' organization segregate	a loud fight
suspended	stop something for a period of time documents	extra stuff we keep and don't always use original	important papers NAACP	someone not named nitrous oxide	a tank-like truck that carries money what was at the beginning